Lenten Sermons

BY THE LAYTY

THE FIRST WAS PREACHED AT ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL BY PHILIP H. DODGE.

Philip H. Dodge made an address at St. Andrew's Cathedral last evening on the "Layman's Opportunity." It was the first of a series of addresses by laymen to be given Wednesday evenings during Lent, alternately at the Cathedral and at St. Clement's.

Mr. Dodge, who was visited in case-sock and surplice, said that the laity were preaching by their lives everywhere. They might baptize other lives into regeneration by the wholesome-ness of their own, and absolve many minds and hearts from despair and sorrow by the sincerity of pure living.

Following Mr. Dodge's address F. W. Everton of the Seaman's Institute made an address on the work of St. Andrew's Brotherhood.

There was a very good congregation present. The next Wednesday evening service will be at St. Clement's church.

THREE HOUSES BLOWN DOWN

ONE HOUSE CONTAINED FOUR PEOPLE WHO ESCAPED UNINJURED WITH EXCEPTION OF ONE

Three houses were blown down by yesterday's kona, in Palolo valley. They were owned by David Al. Sr., J. Webster and Frank Cooke.

David Al. Sr., father of David Al, editor of the Nupapa Kuokoa, with his wife was in the house, together with Charles Hau and his wife when it was blown down. The house, which was situated on Lot 14, of the 999-year lease, was small, about 14x18, and was roofed with corrugated iron. The wind lifted the roof off and then the sides fell in. The parties in the house all escaped uninjured, with the exception of Mrs. Al who was hurt though not seriously.

Further up the valley was the house belonging to J. Webster. It was blown down, while empty. It was situated on Lot 19.

The third house to go down was lower down the valley and belonged to Frank Cooke. It was occupied by a Chinaman who was absent when the accident occurred.

E. trades with rough sea and squally weather to 20 degrees North Lat. where wind came from West S. W. moderate gale with squalls and high regular sea to arrival Honolulu."

WANTS COSTS FROM THE TERRITORY

VICTORS IN LAST APPEALED FISHERY CASE IS SOMETHING OF A QUANDARY.

B. L. Marx, of Ballou & Marx, appeared in the Supreme Court this morning to move that the mandate of the United States Supreme Court in the Bishop Estate fishery case be filed, also that an execution issue for costs of $116, taxed against the Territory. The latter part of the proposition is something new, and the court asked some questions as to what was expected. Justice Wilder became interested and began to ask a question, but interrupted himself to say he had nothing to do with it. Wilder was counsel in the case.

The matter was set for argument on Monday. A peculiar feature of the case is a question as to the effect of an execution against the Territory.

AUDITOR WILL ACT ON ATTORNEY'S ADVICE

WHEN CALLED FOR WARRANTS WILL NOT BE ISSUED TO KAPOLANI PARK COMMISSIONERS.

Nothing further has been done about the $634.05 appropriated by the Board of Supervisors for the Kapiolani Park Commission, for the reason that no one has called as yet on the Auditor for a warrant.

Next week some time these will probably be called for and be refused. The Auditor said today that he would follow the County Attorney's advice and refuse to issue the warrants.

The County Attorney is to let the matter drop as far as testing the legality of the action until the other side brings it up. It will probably be done in this manner. As soon as the Auditor refuses to draw the warrant a mandamus will be asked for compelling him to do so. Then the matter will go to the Circuit Court, and will probably be appealed and carried into the Supreme Court. Here the matter will be settled definitely.
